

Actual Practice 01

Learning Objectives

You will practice how to create a well-organized and effective speech or response and deliver a clear message.

○ Warming Up I – Tongue Twister

1. Practice tongue twister by yourself.
2. Repeat after your instructor. Listen to correct pronunciation.
3. Try to read the sentences faster.

Three gray geese in the green grass grazing.
Gray were the geese and green was the grass.

○ Warming Up II – Picture Describing

Describe the picture by answering the questions below.

- Where is this place?
- What is happening in the picture?
- Who are they and what are they doing?

○ Sentence Building

Listen to your instructor read a group of words. Place the phrases in the correct order to form proper sentences.

Example: If you hear, “after doing yoga”... “very refreshed”... “I feel”
Then you say, “I feel very refreshed after doing yoga.”

- in the back seat / of the car / was sleeping / the child
- for a birthday present / the boy / a blue tie / his father / gave
- looking for food / jumped / the black cat / onto kitchen table

Actual Practice 01

Find and Correct – Most Common Mistakes

The following sentences are grammatically incorrect. Correct the mistakes.

1. She called me yesterday and give me the good news.

→ _____

2. My sister gone to Paris with her friends.

→ _____

3. He didn't come to school last week because he isn't feeling very well.

→ _____

Give an Opinion – Logical Speaking Practice

Answer the question in detail using [Intro.-Main-Conclusion] structure.

[Question] Some people think investments for the future are important while others think that money should be enjoyed as it is earned. Do you think it is better to save money for the future, or enjoy spending money as you earn it? Give reasons in detail.

Introduction	I think... / I prefer... / My opinion is...
Main	First, / First of all, - Because, Because of - For example, For instance Second, / Next, Third, / Lastly,
Conclusion	In conclusion / In short / To sum up / Therefore / For this reason / So / That's why~ - This is Because~ - The reason that I prefer A is that~

Actual Test 01

Learning Objectives

You will practice the actual test to improve your speaking skills.

○ Part A – Listen and Answer

Listen to each question carefully and choose one of the given options.
You will have 5 seconds to respond.

Example: If you hear, “Do you prefer a chair or a sofa?”
Then you say, “I prefer a chair.” or “I prefer a sofa.”

- Would you prefer a diamond ring or a diamond necklace?
- Would you rather ride a horse or a zebra?
- Do you prefer a chair or a sofa?

○ Part B – Sentence Building

Listen and rearrange the word groups into a complete sentence.
You will have 7 seconds to respond.

Example: If you hear, “studying English”... “in America”... “I’ll be”
Then you say, “I’ll be studying English in America.”

- in the United States / I will / be studying English
- to thank you / I would like / for your help
- the plates / in the dish rack / he put

○ Part C – Give an Opinion

Answer the question in detail using [Intro.-Main-Conclusion] structure.
You will have 30 seconds to prepare and 60 seconds to respond.

[Question] Many top universities are choosing to teach courses in English. Do you think that university classes should be in English or should classes be taught in the country's native language? What are your reasons?

Actual Practice 02

Learning Objectives

You will practice how to create a well-organized and effective speech or response and deliver a clear message.

○ Warming Up I – Tongue Twister

1. Practice tongue twister by yourself.
2. Repeat after your instructor. Listen to correct pronunciation.
3. Try to read the sentences faster.

Sally sells sea-shells by the seashore. If Sally sells sea-shells by the sea-shore, are you sure the sea-shells that Sally sells are sea-shells for sure?

○ Warming Up II – Picture Describing

Describe the picture by answering the questions below.

- Where is this place?
- What is happening in the picture?
- Who are they and what are they doing?

○ Sentence Building

Listen to your instructor read a group of words. Place the phrases in the correct order to form proper sentences.

Example: If you hear, “after doing yoga”... “very refreshed”... “I feel”
Then you say, “I feel very refreshed after doing yoga.”

- in the morning / the children / ate breakfast / never
- the actress / we saw / of the restaurant / walking out
- sports car / they boy’s father / gave him / a brand new

Actual Practice 02

Find and Correct – Most Common Mistakes

The following sentences are grammatically incorrect. Correct the mistakes.

1. He wants to know when am I leaving.

→ _____

2. I knew was he going to come to the party or not.

→ _____

3. My father and I doesn't use to watch horror movies.

→ _____

Give an Opinion – Logical Speaking Practice

Answer the question in detail using [Intro.-Main-Conclusion] structure.

[Question] Nowadays, people spend a lot of time traveling. Some people like to travel with public transportation. Others like to travel by their own car. Which do you prefer? Give reasons in detail.

Introduction	I think... / I prefer... / My opinion is...
Main	First, / First of all, - Because, Because of - For example, For instance Second, / Next, Third, / Lastly,
Conclusion	In conclusion / In short / To sum up / Therefore / For this reason / So / That's why~ - This is Because~ - The reason that I prefer A is that~

Actual Test 02

Learning Objectives

You will practice the actual test to improve your speaking skills.

○ Part A – Listen and Answer

Listen to each question carefully and choose one of the given options.
You will have 5 seconds to respond.

Example: If you hear, “Do you prefer a chair or a sofa?”
Then you say, “I prefer a chair.” or “I prefer a sofa.”

- Are you from a urban city or a country town?
- Are you good at cooking or bad at cooking?
- Do you like eating melons or pears?

○ Part B – Sentence Building

Listen and rearrange the word groups into a complete sentence.
You will have 7 seconds to respond.

Example: If you hear, “studying English”... “in America”... “I’ll be”
Then you say, “I’ll be studying English in America.”

- got off/ I quickly / the bus
- five days a week / his computer / he uses
- she doesn’t / to the party / want to go

○ Part C – Give an Opinion

Answer the question in detail using [Intro.-Main-Conclusion] structure.
You will have 30 seconds to prepare and 60 seconds to respond.

[Question] Exercise is considered as an important step in maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Do you prefer playing outdoor sports or exercising at a gym? Give reasons.