

The background of the image is a blue-tinted photograph of a workspace. In the upper right, a laptop screen displays a business dashboard with the word 'Summary' at the top. It features a bar chart on the left, a line chart in the middle, and a pie chart on the right. Below the charts is a data table. To the left of the laptop, a hand is visible, gesturing towards the screen. In the foreground, there are several papers and documents, some with text and others with diagrams. A pen is also visible on one of the papers. The overall scene suggests a professional or academic setting focused on data analysis and preparation.
